"MICROBIOLOGY - AN UPDATE"

Dear All,

It is a great pride and immense pleasure to conduct a CME on "Microbiology - An Update" on 2nd April, 2016 at KAMSRC, L.B. Nagar. On behalf of the organizing committee, I extend a warm and cordial invitation to all for your active participation.

The topics for the CME have been chosen with a view to gaining perspective on newer trends in anti microbial resistance, the value of infection control practices, the implications of microbial evolution for diagnosis & treatment of infectious diseases.

We promise you a feast of knowledge and the opportunity to talk to and hear from eminent microbiologists with expertise in different domains.
